Ani Kitoshvili

Frontend developer

I'm 25 years old. I was studying frontend development at Skillwill. I've already worked as a React developer in a project and I'm so motivated to work hard and develop my career as a developer.

Experience

2024

Frontend developer

I worked with the group on the capstone project. We have created a website for the online market of handbags.

- I created the structure of the webpage with React.
- I was working on website styling. It should have been the same as what we had in the design.
- I have also been working on some functionality of the website that should work properly.

2021-2024

Bank Of Georgia - Teller-Operator

- I had to communicate with customers, be noble with them and helped them to perform operations that they couldn't do on their own.
- I was working on making offers and describe bank products to convince customers to use them.
